

Eliz Grace Tan

Eliz Grace Tan believes that a divine calling led her start up the Istanbul branch office of Glorious Turkuaz in 2010.

Since 2017, she has been representative of DB Tourism in Bosnia Herzegovina for Malaysia, Singapore and Hong Kong, handling tour packages in the Balkans and Eastern Europe.

Eliz Grace was a flight attendant with Malaysia Airlines for 10 years and then joined MAS Academy House (the airlines' hotel) in charge of front office, housekeeping and operations, for six years.

She then joined Monash University as executive secretary to the head of engineering school.

Eliz Grace is married to Yeoh Keong Hock and they have a daughter Chantelle Yeoh.
