

Carven Ong

Charity and couture: designer Carven Ong is equally at home in the world of fashion as he is in fundraising.

The Taiping-born creator has been a stellar name in Malaysian fashion for nearly three decades,

Dressing women from all levels of society.

Carven has been equally passionate about charity work over the last few years.

The designer has been working with several deserving charities that range from animal welfare to underprivileged children.

Carven joined Living Hope in 2013, and has been a key contributor in raising funds and organizing the annual charity bazaars.
