

Shirley Siew

Shirley has worked with children and teenagers for more than 15 years and understanding their hopes and aspirations is now second nature to her.

She graduated in international trade from Australia but decided to work with children and took a diploma course in early childhood education. She dedicates her time to voluntary teaching and charity work – such as Living Hope - as well as creating essential oils for relaxation and focus.