

Tommy Chen

Tommy has been with Living Hope since 2013 and is a great asset with his friendly and reliable disposition.

An artist by profession, he has a natural affinity to help children, especially as a father of two himself.

Besides his professional art and sculpture work, Tommy has a passion for koi fish – which he paints regularly – and develop creative abilities in the young with his art classes.